This is a very important office to the public. It is the work of the Solicitor General to prepare the indictments in exactly the correct and legal form, to submit the evidence for the State to the Grand Jury, to make out the State's case before the trial jury with such evidence and in such a way as to sustain a conviction where a conviction is had, and in the case of an appeal after verdict, it is the duty of the Solicitor General to represent the State in arguing those cases before the Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court of Georgia.

I have had considerable experience in the trial of cases. I have tried almost every kind of case as well as all sorts of civil cases. During my administration I have tried to represent the interest of the State before the Grand Jury and in the Trial Courts with as little loss of time and with as little cost to the counties as possible and at the same time giving due consideration to all the parties involved.

I shall appreciate your support, your influence and your vote and if I am elected to this office for another term, I shall endeavor to give you the same sort of fair, impartial and efficient service that I have tried to give for the past seven years.

Yours sincerely,

FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPERIOR COURT

To the Voters of Bulloch County: I wish to state that I am a candidate to succeed myself as Judge of the Superior Court of the Ogeechee Judicial Circuit, subject to the rules of the State Democratic Primary, recently announced to be held on September 8, 1948.

As you know, I am now filling out the unexpired term of Judge T. J. Evans, deceased.

You never know what sort of a Judge a man will make until you see him in action. For nearly three years you have had an opportunity to judge and appraise my services as a judge. I have tried to be considerate, fair, and impartial in all matters that have come into my courts, and have also undertaken to conduct the courts as economically as possible. I will appreciate your vote and your support.

Sincerely,
J. L. RENFROE.

JUDGE A FARMER BY HIS CLOVER OR ALFALFA!

TOP YIELD powdered rock PHOSPHATE

That's right! If a farmer has good clover or alfalfa, his other crops will take care of themselves. Spread Top Yield on your clover or alfalfa—or on fields you'll seed to clover or alfalfa—and this clover or alfalfa will feed all the other crops in your rotation. Top Yield is the inexpensive way to improve your soil permanently and, at the same time, get an immediate increase in yield. That's the profitable way to farm.

The 90 head of steers entered in the fat stock show and sale last Thursday brought $21,721.20, or an average of above 31 cents per pound. Many of these steers remained in Statesboro and Bulloch county. Those buying for local use were Colonial Stores, (Rogers), Roberts Brothers, Long, Hoke, Sam Diamond, Friendly Cuts, B. B. Morris, Bargain Corner, Bulloch Stock Yards, Cap Mallard, L. J. Shuman, and Brooklet Food Bank.

The grand champion, which sold for the most of any steer in Georgia this year, was bought by Bulloch Stock Yards Super Market, Georgia Theater, Rocker Appliance, State Theater, NeSmith Grocery, F. S. Pruitt, Garvin Grocery, Hodges and Atwell Bakery, J. B. Rushing, Logan Brothers, Rushing Hotel, Alfred Hogan, Walker Furrier, W. G. Tennyson, Collins Freezer Locker, Darley's Billards, L. E. Mr. Usher has begun an active campaign and says that he hopes to see as many of the voters of the circuit as possible between now and September 8th, the date of the Democratic Primary.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Usher, of Guyton; born July 6, 1910. Mr. Usher attended the public schools of Guyton and the Georgia Teachers College at Statesboro. He was admitted to the practice of law on January 1, 1932, and has been practicing continuously since that date. He has served during that time as Mayor of Guyton, W. C. C. Atkins and Son, Proctor Cabinet Co., Statesboro Insurance Agency, City Ice Co., Rackley Seed and Feed Co.

Tillman bought the steer in for these people.

These 96 men and firms paid $1.05 per pound for the 890-pound steer shown by Bobby Martin and then donated it to the 4-H Club members who made the show and sale possible by feeding, fitting and showing the recipient of the steer over WYNS in the sales ring and stating that the clubsters would cook it in two or three weeks.

WYNS gave several short broadcasts of happenings in this people.

These clubsters have been showing cattle since 1932, when the first show was held in Georgia at Savannah. These shows have a definite place in the advancement of the quality of cattle made in Bulloch county since that time. There were fewer hundred bulls in the county than can be counted on one hand in 1932. Today there are hundreds of them.

A HOLE IN THE GROUND

This "Hole in the Ground" represents the unfinished Swimming Pool. We are leaving it here as a constant reminder of our need to complete this project for the young people of this community.

Keep It Blazing

WEEKLY NEWSPAPERS are prone to neglect for themselves what they so persistently advocate for others—self-promotion and advertising.

In the April 2, 1948, issue of the Congressional Record, Hon. Charles R. Robertson, of North Dakota, made a speech on behalf of weekly newspapers which we think is good, and we use it for self-promotion.

"Mr. Speaker, the United States is fortunate in having scattered throughout the country vast numbers of small weekly newspapers. They are weekly making a great contribution to the country. They are keeping the people informed and they are telling the story of American life.

"It is regrettable, indeed, that a similar condition has not prevailed throughout the countries of Europe. Had this been true, the principle that we so frequently refer to as democratic—or better still, our republican form of government, which is government of, by, and for the people—might have successfully prevailed there."

Then Congressman Robertson succeeded in inserting in the Congressional Record a statement made by Ralph W. Keller, manager of the Minnesota Editorial Association. It is as follows:

"You may put your tongue in your cheek, cross your fingers, pat yourself on the back, or just smile indulgently, while we go on record that not only must small towns stay alive, and country newspapers prosper, but they must spread—spread to every corner of these United States, all over the North and South American Continents to the remotest hinterlands of the entire world.

"If the people of Germany, Russia, Japan, yes, even of England, and the people of every other despairing, paralyzed, cold-cramped, hunger-haunted nation on earth—if these common run-of-the-mill rural and small town workmen, business and professional people had the free radio and the free magazines and the free newspapers—media free to tell the truth as the editor sees it, free to comment on industry and politics and social life, free to help readers to unprejudiced understanding of themselves, their neighbors, and the rest of the world—if the seemingly bottomless pits of misery and ignorance into which we are pouring billions of American relief, were lighted by the torches of a free press, then could we work with confidence for world prosperity and hope with assurance for world peace.

"Compared with the great searchlights of New York, Chicago, the Twin Cities, your country newspaper may seem only a candle, but it lights a window in our American structure of literacy and know-how and free enterprise, and it's guiding someone along the pathway of personal endeavor, community progress, and world-wide brotherhood—

"Keep it blazing!"

Play Ball!

Next Thursday night the Statesboro Pilots will respond to the umpire's yell, "PLAY BALL," and the 1948 baseball season for the Ogeechee Baseball League will be underway.

Last year the Statesboro Pilots did O.K. by their fans. The indications are now that they will be just as good a team this year, if not better.

On Tuesday of this week the fans got a sneak preview of the boys in action and the season promises to be a good one.

A team is just as good as the fans who support it. If the Statesboro fans turn out in force and give them the old pepper, you can expect the team to talk it up on the infield and pass that ole apple around, and the outfield to stay on their toes for those high and long ones.

Last year the fans sort of let their team down from time to time—a losing streak and the fans reacted by a letdown in enthusiasm.

Proper support demands that the fan stays in there all the time talking up the game—never losing enthusiasm—always encouraging the team always right there when the game is called and still there when the last pitch is made.

Given that, the Statesboro Pilots can expect to show us some fast baseball—baseball to satisfy the most avid fan.

We, like the other fans, are standing by for those famous first words:

PLAY BALL!

Be Sweet To Her

WHEN EVE was brought unto Adam, he became filled with the Holy Spirit, and gave her the most sanctified, the most glorious of appellations. He called her Eva—that is to say, the Mother of All. He did not style her wife, but simply mother—mother of all living creatures. In this consists the glory and the most precious ornament of woman—Luther.

Mother's Day—Sunday, May 9.

Despite its over-commercialization, it is still a day to hold dear in the hearts of man.

Many sons and daughters set aside that day to travel across the state, to come long distances that they might be with their mother on that day.

It is a day when, for the only time in a year, a family gets together and devotes its entire attention to Mother.

It's her day—be sweet to her—it's so easy. You don't have to buy gifts. You're hers and your presence is enough.

"NUMBER 95" AGAIN

In the March 25 issue of the Herald we wrote a short front page story about "Number 95" being caught in the Ogeechee River.

"Number 95" was a shad caught by Willie Shuman at Rufus Terrell's landing. The shad had an identification button on it—placed in the fish's gills by the Bureau of Fisheries, Washington, D. C. Mr. Shuman forwarded the button to the proper authorities.

Now comes a letter from Congressman Prince Preston, enclosing a letter written to him by M. C. James, Assistant Director of the U. S. Department of the Interior, Fish and Wildlife Service. The letter gives us a clue to Mr. Shuman's "Number 95." Mr. James' letter reports that on March 23, 1948, a return was reported from the Ogeechee River near Stillson. We believe that this is "Number 95."

Here is Mr. James' letter to Congressman Preston:

April 19, 1948
Hon. Prince H. Preston, Jr.,
House of Representatives,
My dear Mr. Preston:

At the Committee hearing on April 2 you expressed an interest in the results of some shad tagging experiments and requested that you be furnished with a record of the recoveries. I regret that my subsequent departure on a trip to the West Coast delayed the furnishing of this information. However, there follows a summary of this experiment:

Two hundred thirty-six (236) adult shad were tagged on August 28, 1947, at Mt. Desert Rock, 17½ miles off the coast of Maine in the Atlantic Ocean. This experiment was conducted to determine to which streams the shad would return to spawn. This is probably the first time shad have been so farmed this far at sea.

Five returns have been made to date. These are as follows:

October 3, 1947, Atlantic Ocean, N.E. of Thatcher's Light (Mass.)

March 19, 1948, Champney River, near Darien, Georgia.

March 23, 1948, Ogeechee River, near Stillson, Georgia.

March 25-27, 1948, Pamlico Sound off Stumpy Point, North Carolina.

April 7, 1948, market return; dealer buys from Hatteras, North Carolina. Additional information has been requested.

This is exceedingly interesting in that it gives preliminary indication of wider movements of shad that had been commonly recognized. I shall be glad to keep you informed of any later developments.

Sincerely yours,
M. C. JAMES,

Assistant Director.

(As Prince says, "You see from the letter that shad are great travelers. This evidence could very easily refute the popular belief that the shad always return to the stream where she was Dorothy Perkin roses, asparagus

ELABORATE RECEPTION MARKS 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF BELOVED COUPLE

The patrician beauty of the bride of fifty years and her handsome husband as they graciously responded to the warm congratulations of their friends who called at the Woman's Club Saturday dominated the elaborately decorated club room.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Parrish were honored on the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding by their son, George Parrish, and his daughter, Mrs. Fred Smith, and the former Miss Dora Marwick, of Emmanuel county, Mr. Parrish, at the time of his marriage, lived in Statesboro and was employed by the late E. Simmons in the mercantile business. Mr. Parrish for many years was a member of the firm of Blitch-Parrish Company. Receiving with their parents were Mrs. Fred Smith and Mr. Parrish. The guests were met at the door by Mrs. V. F. Agan and Mrs. Frank Williams.

The walls of the spacious room with pine boughs furnished a background of greenery for tall standards of white gladioli, white carnations and exquisite arrangements of talisman roses. The granite mantel was banked with magnolia blooms interspersed with gold lighted tapers. Golden Bapture roses in a Victorian arrangement contained in a silver bowl formed the central decoration of the lace covered table and was flanked by silver candelabra with yellow tapers. Presiding at the Victorian silver services at each end of the table were Mrs. George Parrish, of Jessup; and Mrs. Aurelius Ford, of Richmond, Va., who poured for the first time. They were relieved by Mrs. C. R. River, of Greensboro, N. C.; Mrs. Parrish's sister, and Mrs. J. G. Watson.

White and gold block ice cream with individual wedding cakes, embossed with yellow roses and dainty floral mints, combined beautifully with the gold and white motif. The monogrammed napkins were handed out by Mary Parrish, a granddaughter, and Lynne Smith.

Those serving were Mrs. Glenn Jennings, Mrs. W. D. Anderson, Mrs. Jack Blitch, Mrs. J. P. Foy, Mrs. Cliff Bradley, Mrs. Bruce O'Hoff, Mrs. Frank Simmons, Mrs. Inman Foy, Mrs. A. M. Braswell, Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. Barney Averitt, and Mrs. J. O. Johnston. Mrs. Fred Smith, Jr., of Charleston, S. C., and Mrs. Sid Smith, of Atlanta, were in charge of the guest book. Mrs. W. S. Hanner, assisted by Mrs. George Johnston and Mrs. Waldo Floyd, presented an appropriate musical program.

Mrs. Parrish was lovely in a black crepe gown featuring a peplum. A narrow gold belt and multiple strands of gold beads added distinction. Her corsage was of Golden Bapture roses. Mrs. Fred Smith, Sr. was becomingly attired in lupine blue crepe with silver sequin trim. Her flowers were white carnations, worn in her hair. Mrs. George Parrish's frock was of aqua crepe accented by long purple gloves. Her shoulder bouquet was mammoth pink peony. Mrs. Fred Smith, Jr. wore light blue taffeta with talisman roses. Mrs. Sid Smith chose a white crepe with gold sequins. Her flowers were white carnations. Mrs. Aurelius Ford was handsomely gowned in ashes of roses satin, worn with a spray of gardenias. Two hundred and twenty-five called between the hours of 8 and 10.

When our theater gets the new motion picture release, "Naked City," they'd better bill "Selected Shorts," too. Agree or disagree?

When we were here two years ago, we lived with Mr. and Mrs. Shep Lewis out on South Main, and being without a car, we patronized the city bus which was operating at that time.

One morning, the rain was pouring down when I got to my stop, so I stayed on the bus, hoping it (the rain) would wear itself out during the 10-minute stop at the College Administration building.

Mr. Bob Winburn got on while we were waiting and remarked about the broom I had purchased. I came back with the old crack about a new broom sweeping clean, and Mr. Bob showed said, "It all depends on WHO'S pushing it!" Agree or disagree?

Ride out East Main late some afternoon. Go to past Elmer Baptist Church to Bailey's Pond and feast your tired eyes on nature's beauty. Rest your aching bones by that lovely sound of quiet water and think about the fish you might catch if you didn't get caught wetting your line (it's posted) and on your way home, see if the East Georgia Peanut Company warehouse doesn't remind you of a medieval castle silhouetted against the dimming sky. Agree or disagree?

Dime store temptations—to buy a skein of mercerized embroidery floss, and you don't really need it, just because it looks so pretty; to purchase some of those salted nuts that always smell so good; to look through the pattern books with nothing definite in mind. A or D?

Unexpected company Wednesday afternoon caught me with cupboard like those of Mother Hubbard, and I rushed out to the A & R where I found some lovely lean rib steaks and red, juicy strawberries. The radio was tuned in on WYNN and "Just Because My Hair Is Curly" was pouring out. A. T. Ansley says those old songs—"Four Leaf Clover" and "Bye, Bye, Blackbird"—have never been equalled by our modern songwriters. According to him, anyone who doesn't appreciate that good old music just isn't "right," and he believes in whistling while he works. A or D?

Agree Or Disagree?

The congressmen from the butter states announced their plans to make it compulsory for oleo manufacturers to put their product up in a circular or triangular package so that housewives can tell the difference. Any woman who isn't sure whether she has oleo or butter after she pays for it, wouldn't know the difference if the oleo was sold in jars!

The Home Demonstration Club Agree or disagree?

Agree or disagree? The town of Ulen, Minnesota, instituted bumps in the roads leading to town to cut down on speed demons. A committee member said, "After they hit one of those bumps a few times, they'll slow down." If we had to depend on bumps instead of Tucker, South Main wouldn't need any detouring. A or D?

Sunday is Mothers Day. As Jane Taylor puts it, "Who ran to help me when I fell, And would some pretty story tell, Or kiss the place to make it well? My Mother." Mothers spend their lives trying to make it easy for their children—so let's make every day Mother's Day. Agree or disagree? AGREE, of course!

AND AS TO DANCING and romancing, Billy Kennedy "met" Agnes Blitch at a formal dance during Little Commencement at the University and the sentimental strains of Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra...

JANE was completely bowled over Monday morning when he walked Margaret Hamilton with a perfectly huge bouquet of freshly plucked nasturtiums. When we raved about how colorful they were, Margaret said that they were planted under the influence of her Dad who liked gay things. When Margaret was a little girl, he always bought her a red dress and specified that it be made with a jaunty sash. "Now Dr. Brown takes it upon himself to see that young Nancy Hamilton has a red dress with a saucy sash..."

Mr. Stratton said that the primary objective of the Agricultural Conservation Program is to reduce this loss. "Through this program," he points out, "the nation cooperates with its farmers in carrying out conservation practices which keep the soil and water on the farm."

From that limited amount of topsoil, which is getting less each year, must come the 435 million people in this country. In addition, tons and tons of food are needed to keep Europe from going under.

"And every farm that goes under the bridge means just that much less land from which to grow the food we need—that much more of a burden on the land that is left."

All's Fair

A STATESBORO COCKTAIL Mix a bit of bridge and a dash of dinner.

Add a sparkling horse show with a measure of winners. Give it flavor with dancing on a nice smooth floor.

And a bit of spooning with the one you adore. Don't leave out golfing at Forest Hills greens.

Or a nice long hike in a pair of blue jeans. Shake it up with bowling and a game of baseball.

Then there's skating and fishing to please 'em all. Pop it up with riding on a shady path.

And would that we could top it off with a SWIMMING POOL BATH!

IN A CALL to Anne Hook, we discover that the young mother's expert assistants. We called at a crucial time. Young Frank, 3, was enjoying his morning bath. Presiding at the ablutions were Mama Anne, Mary Sue Atkins and Dot Knight. Inquiring further about the son and heir's health, we were assured that he was doing fine, except they couldn't fill him up. His Dad refers to him as his baseball pitcher and only Sunday gave him the cutest little baseball bat—and as soon as the young ruler of the House of Hook tightened his fingers around it he gave it a mighty swing...

JIM AND MARY DAN COLEMAN should give us a little notice. A call at one o'clock on the morning of the fact that Jim, Mary Dan, and Linda were in town. Brought up in the country where you asked everybody at church on meeting day to have dinner with you, I was on the verge of inviting them to dinner, when I remembered we were having steak and I had counted noses. However, there was an offer of a city slicker. Jim likes his work, meets marvelous people, and—personally—I hope he is backing a winner...
